PRESENT

Pen and Paper: A Murderous Caper

A MYSTERY IN THREE ACTS

Friday & Saturday, Feb. 19 & 20, and Friday & Saturday, Feb. 26 & 27

Doors open at 7 p.m. Performances start promptly at 7:30 p.m.

Every year, the esteemed experts who write, edit, publish, and read literature mingle at the Character, Reader, Author, and Publisher Guild's Annual Gala. This year's event, hosted by famous local critic Ann Slanders, celebrates the genre of the mystery novel. But when masters of mystery meet and egos flare...will anyone survive? Who better to figure out who done it than those who create criminals for a living?

Dress as your favorite literary character and try to solve the mystery presented by the Hysterical Society Players, whose eleventh production benefits the Wauwatosa Historical Society.

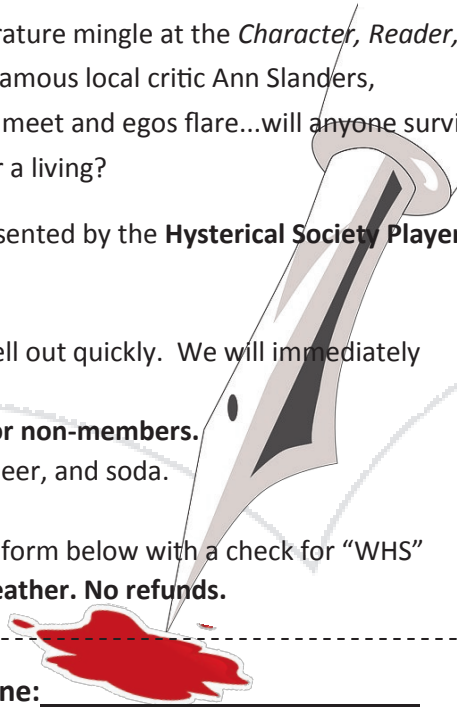

A maximum of 80 tickets per performance are available and the shows sell out quickly. We will immediately contact you if your selected date is already sold out.

Tickets are $35 for WHS members and $40 for non-members.

Price includes appetizers, desserts, wine, beer, and soda.
